

Go beyond the Daily Texts with books, music and Moravian gifts from the IBOC!

While best-known for the Moravian Daily Texts, the Interprovincial Board of Communication (IBOC) offers an ever-growing variety of historical, inspirational, educational and spiritual books, each with a special connection to the Moravian Church.

From this outstanding collection, you can understand more about the history and practices of our Church, be inspired, teach your family, grow in your connection to God and renew what it means to belong to the Moravian Church.

Images of the Moravian Church 2017 Wall Calendar

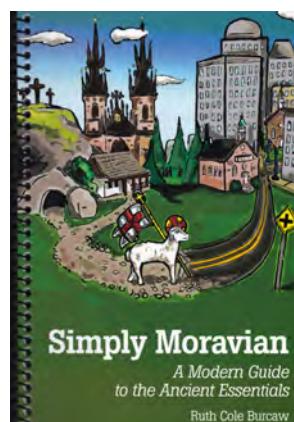

This unique 12-month wall calendar for 2017 features full-page photos depicting Moravian traditions, events and locations. The calendar pages include key Moravian festival days, like John Hus Festival (July 6), August 13th Festival and Festival of Christ the Chief Elder (Nov. 13), along with major US and Canada holidays. The coil-bound calendar opens to 11" wide x 17" tall and is printed on 100 lb. matte-finish card stock that's easy to write on. $12.00

Keeping Time: Dances to the Beat of a Different Drummer by the Rev. Brian Dixon

Brian Dixon reveals God's call and interaction in our lives in the form of poetry, short stories, prayers, and benedictions. Keeping Time is an invitation to dance in the Spirit, to freely move within God's love, and to find the beat of our own faith. Paperback, 118 pages. $12.95

Simply Moravian: A Modern Guide to the Ancient Essentials by Ruth Cole Burcaw

Developed through the Board of Cooperative Ministries and edited by Moravian historians and educators, this small volume explores the world of the Unity of the Brethren, the very earliest Moravians, and discusses what's essential to living as Christians. Includes activities for children, youth and adults, a devotional on exploring the essentials and a new "Living the Essentials" liturgy. Updated in 2016. Spiral bound. $10.00

The IBOC also offers CDs that celebrate the rich tradition of Moravian music, along with a selection of gifts ideal for both Moravians and non-Moravians alike!

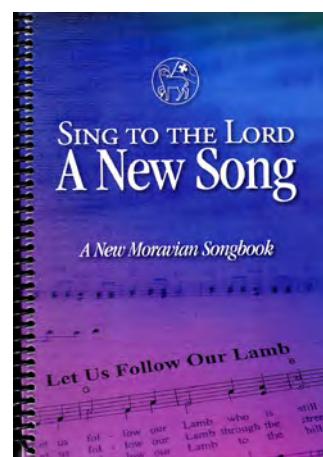

And, of course, the IBOC is your source for the 2017 Moravian Daily Texts, available in paperback, hardcover, journal and large print editions.
