Friday, June 27 — Psalm 78:65-72 Deuteronomy 4:32-5:21; Luke 5:12-26 God will help you, the Almighty will bless you. Genesis 49:25 With your presence, Lord, our Head and Savior, Jless us all, we humbly pray; Jess us all, we humbly pray;

With your presence, Lord, our Head and Savior, bless us all, we humbly pray; our dear heavenly Father's love and favor be our comiont every day.
May God's Spirit now in each proceeding favor us with his most gracious leading; thus shall we be truly blessed both in labor and in rest.

Jesus said to the man who had been possessed, "Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and what mercy he has shown you." Mark 5:19

O Jesus, you have promised to all who follow you that where you are in glory your servants shall be too. And Jesus, I have promised to serve you to the end; O give me grace to follow, my master and my friend.

Lord, we give thanks for the many blessings you have bestowed upon us this past week. May we give what you have freely given to us back to others, what you have freely given to us back to others. Our promise to serve you will always be the most important duty we do. In your name we pray. Amen.

The world's oldest daily devotional... ... that's new every morning!

magine sharing the same devotional with 1.5 million believers in more than 50 languages around the globe. The Moravian Daily Texts has been living this ecumenical dream for many years!

First published in 1731 in Herrnhut, Germany, the Daily Texts grew out of a spiritual renewal of the Moravian Church (Unitas Fratrum) that dates back to Aug. 13, 1727. Today, more than 280 years after its first publication, the Daily Texts continues its promise of "a daily message from God that is new every morning."

The Moravian Daily Texts offers an inspirational connection to the Holy Scriptures every day. Each entry in this beloved daily devotional includes "watchwords"—Old and New Testament verses to accompany readers throughout the day—combined with beautiful hymn texts and heartfelt prayers selected and written by Moravians across North America. Order yours today!
